

Clinical Nurse Coach Full time | Permanent

Kensington Private Hospital is Northlands only Private Surgical Hospital offering a wide variety of surgical specialities. We currently have five Operating Theatres, a 21 bed Inpatient Suite and have plans for further expansion.

Demand for private surgical services in Northland has grown exponentially over the past four years. In view of this, Kensington Private Hospital is expanding too.

We are seeking a Clinical Nurse Coach to join our team, to share clinical knowledge with our nursing team and provide extra clinical coaching and training in theatre. This will also be the opportunity to mentor and provide clinical coaching to staff new to theatre and consolidate ongoing practice for others.

This is very much a hands on training role within the Operating Theatre, supporting best practice, implementing hospital policies and watching our new staff flourish.

This is a Monday – Friday role, no PM or nightshifts.

Our ideal candidate will have:

- Exceptional knowledge in the clinical environment
- Minimum of 3 years' experience in an Operating Theatre environment
- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- Computer literate
- Proven clinical mentoring and teaching abilities
- Ability to demonstrate a high level of nursing care and skills across multiple specialties in the Operating Theatre
- Have a proactive, positive attitude

Highly desirable skills:

- Expert PDRP or working towards an expert level
- A post graduate in Health Professional Education

We offer a professional and friendly environment, comprehensive orientation, great working conditions, opportunities for further development and Nursing Council approved PDRP.

If your theatre skills and knowledge extend across a range of specialties, you are in line with current best practice guidelines and you are passionate about sharing knowledge and developing others, this could be the role for you.

Applicants must have New Zealand residency or a valid New Zealand work visa.
